Hugh D. Farley, Assistant Executive Secretary, NSC, called [] to advise that the NSC had APPROVED NSC 104/2 and also to say that the NSC directed that its APPRECIATION BE EXPRESSED to the Senior Staff and the Special Committee on East-West Trade for the manner in which the work had been done. Formal commendation has been forwarded. With reference to the Country Studies of the Special Committee on East-West Trade, in connection with the IMPLEMENTATION OF THE CANNON AMENDMENT, Farley stated that this matter was being placed ON the AGENDA for the MEETING OF THE EAST-WEST TRADE COMMITTEE, TUESDAY, 17 APRIL. [] advised that the CIA staff was reviewing the Commerce studies for the purpose of briefing the CIA member and for any supplemental contribution which CIA might make. For this reason, he desired to know in what priority the reports should be considered. Farley said that he recognized the importance of this and was going to ask the Committee itself to establish a priority at the meeting Tuesday. In the meantime, he would welcome any comments or suggestions which CIA might have. (12 Apr)
